

I want a bright future!- Labour Market Information Assignment name_____

Want a job or a career after high school? Then you have to learn about the labour market and places where the jobs will be in the future!

The Government of Canada Job Bank- Labour Market Information

Explore Careers and discover current information about careers that interest you!

Go on the following web site <https://www.jobbank.gc.ca/occupationsearch>

The page you land on should look like this...

Select a job title that you want to research and fill in the chart below.

You will need to select a province too! ONCE you hit SEND it will look for a specific job in that province and bring up the information.

Select a job title that you want to research and fill in the chart below.

You will need to select a province too! ONCE you hit SEND it will look for a specific job in that province and bring up the information.

Job Title
Wages
Outlook
Jobs- How many are available and where are they located?
Requirements
Skills Needed	